

INVITATION to an FREE EVENT (RSVP November 30)

Taking action to keep multicultural communities safe: Faith and community leaders training.

December 3 Wednesday lunchtime information session 12.00 – 1.30pm Chinese Community Association of Tasmania (CCAT) premises, Burnett Place, North Hobart.

Background

For the last year CCAT has been involved in a project to develop an e-learning module called Taking action to keep multicultural communities safe: Faith and community leaders training. The Train, Engage, Connect and Support (TECS) project is supported by the Australian Government as part of the National Plan to End Violence Against Women and Children 2022-2032. The project is delivered by SSI in partnership with the Federation of Ethnic Communities' Councils of Australia (FECCA).

Aim

To empower more leaders to be a part of positive change in the community.

Support TECS promote the online self-paced free training for community and faith leaders to learn how to safely support people experiencing family, domestic, and sexual violence in their community.
